Generall of the province of Carolina And to the Hono<sup>rb</sup>le the Lords prop<sup>rs</sup>: Deputys/

The Humble Petition of the house of Commons

May it please yo<sup>r</sup> hono<sup>rs</sup>:/

The R<sup>t</sup>. Hono<sup>rb</sup>le: the Lords and absolute P<sup>ro</sup>p<sup>rs</sup>: of this P<sup>ro</sup>vince not requiringe from the people any Rent till the yeare 1690 Gave the first Settlers of this place Such Encouragement that they Laboured und<sup>r</sup> a Continuall watch and Guard to Defend it and themselves from the attempt<sup>s</sup> of y<sup>e</sup> Spanyards and Natives that they were Soe much Employed therein that for Many yeares they Could not make Sufficient P<sup>ro</sup>visions for themselves but Suffred the want of Bread and went thr'o many Difficultyes Even to the Dyspare of their lives, at Last it pleased God by his Divine Goodness Soe to bless the Endeavo<sup>rs</sup>: of the people of this Settlement that they not only made their owne P<sup>ro</sup>visions but in Some measure Supplied their neighbours by which means the fame of this place beyond seas Encouraged many people in Europe & other parts to Come hither and Settle, and they did willingly and Readily take the Conveyance for Land that was then Granted and Cherefully Joyned hand in hand wth: their neighbours in Settling and Defending this palce to the Great hono<sup>r</sup> of the Lords prop<sup>rs</sup>: and the Joy and strengthning of the first Com-mers insoemuch that they doubted not but all Difficulties were over and that Every one Should Sitt downe in Peace und<sup>r</sup> his owne vine)
But those Halcyon Days did not Continue Long, their Lordships were pleased in the yeare one thousand Six hundred Eighty Two, to alter their first Grant and ord<sup>r</sup> a new Conveyance for Land to the Great Dislike of the people which Occationed Some Some old Settlers and many New Commers to Leave this Settlem<sup>t</sup> & Some that Stayd Spent their Substance wayting in Expectacon when the s<sup>d</sup>: Greivance would be Removed, others that were Compelled to Settle in the woods were Discouraged to plant and Improve their plantacons for want of Compleate Titles to their Lands, their Lordships also Left the Governm<sup>t</sup>: of this Settlem<sup>t</sup> uncertaine and were pleased frequently to alter the same, these mutations hapning one on the neck of another, occasioned heart burnnings and Discontents

amongst y<sup>e</sup> Inhabittants and kept Many in Doubt whether they would Settle here or noe, which not only kept them from Improving but occationed the wasting of their Estates and Soe Impoverished this Settlem<sup>t</sup>: That if yo<sup>r</sup> hono<sup>rs</sup> make the people pay their arrears of their Rent it will Endanger the Ruine of the Greatest part of the planters and force them to Suffer their Lands to Revert to their Lordshipps/ all which we make knowne and Lay before yo<sup>r</sup> Hono<sup>rs</sup>— And further add Since now the Considerable Trade of Charles Towne hath gained it y<sup>e</sup> reputacon of a wealthy place which (we are Credibly Inform<sup>d</sup>: and have Reason to believe) hath Encouraged Sever<sup>ll</sup> privateers to attempt the plundering and Burning of y<sup>e</sup> Same, which ca'not be prevented but by fortifyeing of itt which is now und<sup>r</sup> our Consideracon, butt Canot be Done wthout a very Great Charge to the Inhabitants of this their Collony which notwithstanding, being sensible of the necessity thereof we are willing to accomplish therefore we humbly begg yo<sup>r</sup> hono<sup>rs</sup> That for y<sup>e</sup> Reasons afore said yo<sup>r</sup> hono<sup>rs</sup> will be pleased to forgive the arrears of Rent to y<sup>e</sup> Inhabittants of this part of their P<sup>r</sup>vince, itt will the better Encourage & Enable us to und<sup>r</sup>take the Great butt Necessary Charge of fortifieing Charles Towne y<sup>e</sup> only place of trade & strength in y<sup>e</sup> whole P<sup>r</sup>vince and which being lost will necessarily unsettle and Ruine this now thriveing Collony & will oblige us to provide for y<sup>e</sup> Certaine/

A message from y<sup>e</sup> uper house by Landgrave Jos Morton and Cap<sup>t</sup>

James Moore Informeing this house in Wrighting the answer of y<sup>e</sup> uper House to y<sup>e</sup> objections of the Comittee of this house To The Conveyance or Grant of Land/ vizt

That no people that may heare of the report of the Sales and Grants of Land may when they come heare be Deceived in their Expectations I Consent that Care be taken to prevent it by Secureing it for Three yeares according to agreement I shall make wth: you and that Care be taken that their shall not be A Commissioner wanting to Sell Same/

That their be a Clause in the act for the Encouradgement of finding mines for                    yeares That if any P<sup>erson</sup> whatsoever shall Discover any base mines in any part of this part of the P<sup>rovince</sup> wth:in 50 or 60 miles of Charles Towne that they shall have liberty to worke the same for his or their owne P<sup>er</sup> use paying to the Lords only one sixth part of the oare as is Digged and wast, or the one tenth part of the mettles when Refined

I am Willing to Grant Lands in fee according to my powers by my Commission, and to have the peney P<sup>er</sup> acre Expressed in y<sup>e</sup>— Grant to be in Lieu of all Services Due to the P<sup>er</sup>sons as Lords of the ffee/ I am Willing that the Rents be paid in money as it now is or hereafter shall be Established by Law or the vallue thereof in any merchantable Comodities of the P<sup>ro</sup>duction of this P<sup>rovince</sup> fitt for England/

That y<sup>e</sup> secureing y<sup>e</sup> Conveyance of Lands for 3 yeares will not answer the End of encourageing P<sup>ersons</sup> in Europe and other places to Come hither and settle which is soe much Desired by their Lordships and the Inhabittants of this place/

And Since the frequent altering the Conveyance of Lands hath been the Cheife occasion of this part of this P<sup>rovince</sup> being soe thinly peopled, and of the Unsettled state thereof/

The Commons belives nothing more Can Conduce to their Lordships Proffitt and the peopleing this place And Establishing a Sure Settlement Then fixing the Conveyance for Lands and ascertaineing the peoples haveing the same at least for Some Terme of yeares// Which the Commons are Desirous Shall be Twenty if yo<sup>r</sup> hono<sup>rs</sup> are not willing to Grant it for more/

That their Lordships in the begining of the Settlement not Excepting of base mines was a Great Encouragement to the first comers and y<sup>e</sup> Excepting of them in the Conveyance now will much Discourage the settlement of this place by the Inhabittants and also prevent others to Come and strengthen them/

And they are of oppinion that when a base mine is opned that y<sup>e</sup> shares or parts Reserved to their Lordships in yo<sup>r</sup> hono<sup>rs</sup>— Message will be all if not more then the Cleare proffitts of said base mines/ And therefore prays that base mines may not be Excepted in the Conveyance/

The Commons prays that they may hold their Lands in free and Common Soccage at a Certaine Rent Expressed in the Conveyance in Lieue of all services and that the word ffealty may not be Excepted/

The Commons are willing to pay their Rents as yo<sup>r</sup> hono<sup>rs</sup> p<sup>ro</sup>poses in yo<sup>r</sup> Message Leaveing, the words (fitt for England) outt/

<sup>1</sup>The original of this paper, or a contemporary copy thereof, is in the custody of the Historical Commission. About a hundred years ago, when several of the earliest manuscript volumes of journals of the Commons House were bound together and the whole repaged in continuous pagination, this paper was bound in between the last page for the session ending November 28, 1695, and the first page for the session beginning January 30, 1696, and was numbered as pages 101 and 102. In rebinding the manuscript volumes in 1907 this loose sheet was taken out.
